Dedication

This year's yearbook is dedicated to Mr. George Williams. After completing high school, Mr. Williams attended the University of Illinois. He then transferred to Utah State to get his B.A. degree and went on to get his master's degree at Southern Illinois University. He later went to Millikin for Drivers Education. Mr. Williams first teaching was at Carterville in 1957. In 1959 he moved to Gillespie, and in 1963 he went to McLeansboro. Mr. Williams began his teaching career at Clinton in 1964. He first taught Biology and Science and later switched to Driver's Education. He was also made head football coach of the fighting maroons and assistant basketball coach.

If you weren't in the halls before 8:10; follow the footprints.

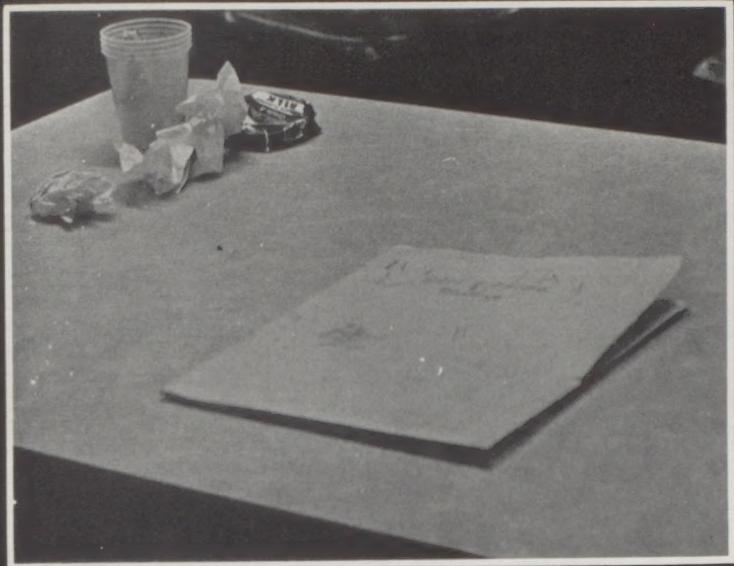

If you knew where you were going to be all your free mods, go ahead.

If you read your English assignment before class, go on to the next picture.

If you made it through the halls without being run over during the rush, advance one.

If you can find a clean table to eat on in the commons, advance ahead.

If you weren't ever kicked out of the library for talking, advance on one space.

If you can beat the traffic jam as school gets out, you have won the game; turn the page!

Homecoming

The events for the Homecoming 1973 began at three P.M. on October nineteenth. Led by a police escort, the parade began in front of the Middle School. With the blow of the drum majors whistle, the parade came to life. Following right behind the band were the colorful floats. A grand total of eight floats were displayed. Although all the floats were nicely done, only three of them received prizes. First place went to Pep Club, who's theme was "Whale of a Victory." Second prize went to Girl's Athletic Association, who titled their entry as "Alarm Canton, Time's Running Out." The final prize went to the Future Nurses of America Club, who titled their float "Knock 'Em Spacey."

Although the weather was chilly, the Maroon's spirit was not dampened. The event they had all been looking forward to began at eight P.M. on October nineteenth. The fighting Maroons did not let their fans down and took an early lead in the game. Starting out on the right foot, the Maroons were determined to win. They succeeded in holding the opponents, Canton, to eighty three yards rushing, compared to the their two hundred eighty-eight yards. Special defensive award went to Jack Mills, who had twelve tackles. Special offensive awards went to Steve Smith, who chalked up one hundred four yards rushing, and Greg Allen, who totaled one hundred seven yards. As the final buzzer went off, the victorious Maroons ran off the field with a 21-6 victory.

This year's Homecoming Dance was held in the High School commons on Saturday, October 20. The dance began promptly at eight p.m. and lasted till eleven p.m. The young couples enjoyed dancing to music played by the Stonewood. At 9:30, the 1973 Homecoming Queen, Miss Re Nae Piepenbrink, and her escort, Mr. Steve West, were featured in the traditional homecoming queen dance.

The Girls Athletic Association is devoted to promoting physical activity and good sportsmanship. During the year, the members engage in various activities such as hiking, bowling, flag football, volleyball, dodgeball, and softball.

Each fall, GAA holds an informal initiation and weiner roast for all new members. Later in the spring, the club has a formal initiation of these same girls along with the newly elected officers for the coming year. Serving as officers for 1973-74 were: Sally Utterback, president; Mary McConnell, vice president; Tina Carter, secretary; Judy Reinhart, treasurer; Cindy Linderman, sports manager; Tracy Cannon, student council rep.; and Vicki Eich and Debbie McFeeters, points chairmen.

Under the direction of Mrs. Kratz, GAA designed and constructed a float which placed second in the annual homecoming parade. Another of the club's yearly events is the Christmas Party and gift exchange, complete with a visit from Santa. For the second year in a row, the GAA bowling team captured first place in the district tournament. It was, however, unable to advance at the state level.

deeply missed by the

Time In A Bottle

If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save every day
'Til Eternity passes away
Just to spend them with you.

If I could make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true
I'd save every day like a treasure and then
Again, I would spend them with you.

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true
The box would be empty
Except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you.
